A blessed and holy setting.

Blessed by Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann on Sept. 5, 2009, the new Holy Family Mausoleum offers a strikingly beautiful sacred environment for entombment.

- Stained glass windows depict scenes from the family life of Jesus, Mary and Joseph.
- There is a rose window over the entryway and a larger window portraying the "Family of God."
- The new facility also features carvings of the Holy Family at the exterior entrance of the mausoleum.
- The interior has colorful marble finishes.

A variety of entombment options.

Holy Family Mausoleum offers individuals and entire families a range of entombment options.

- There are 1,227 interior and exterior crypts.
- The mausoleum features 70 glass-front cremation niches (each accommodating two urns or one large urn).
- A limited number of wooden-shuttered couch crypts are available under the large stained glass window.

Other special features.

- The building includes an office for client meetings with family service counselors.
- Families have security codes for convenient access in any weather.
- The new mausoleum is located in close proximity to the Prince of Peace and Queen of Peace Mausoleums.
- Nearby parking offers easy access to the mausoleum entrance.
